MEMORIAL DAY 2013

The Bracken County News

Remembering Their Sacrifice

For nearly 150 years now, our nation has set aside a day to remember those who paid the ultimate price to protect our freedom.

It is perhaps fitting that Memorial Day, which traces its roots to the Civil War, was itself the source of conflict for so many years. It is believed to have begun in the South, when Confederate widows decorated not only the graves of their loved ones but also those of Union soldiers, knowing their families were grieving as well.

It is the North, though, that is considered the official birthplace, since New York was the first state to formally recognize May 30th as the date each year to mourn our fallen soldiers. Other northern states soon adopted the same day, but many of their southern counterparts refused until the end of World War I. Instead, their days of remembrance ranged from January through early June.

It wasn't until the early 1970s that Congress established the national holiday as we now know it: the last full weekend of May.

For many, of course, this is the unofficial kick-off to summer. While that may be true, Memorial Day carries much more significance than that.

It is a time when we recall the more than 1.3 million men and women who have served our country since the Revolutionary War but did not make it back home.

It is a time when we remember the battles that stand as signposts along our country's history, from Bunker Hill, Gettysburg and Pearl Harbor to Saigon, Baghdad and Kabul.

It is a time when a moment of silence can say so much.

Kentuckians understand that better than most. One in 10 Kentucky adults is a veteran, and Fort Knox, Fort Campbell and the Kentucky National Guard have long played integral roles in our country's defense. Going back even further, more Kentuckians died in the War of 1812 than every other states' casualties combined.

This coming weekend, numerous ceremonies and parades will be held across the commonwealth and the country to honor those who gave all they had when we needed them most. They may no longer be with us, but their legacy still shines.

If you are a veteran or are still serving, I want to say how much I appreciate your willingness to carry this mission forward. Our world now is different in so many ways from the time of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln, but the unfailing commitment that our men and women in uniform give every day to duty, honor and country remains unchanged.

As we pay tribute to those who gave so much to so many, I hope you can take part in one of this weekend's Memorial Day events. If that is not possible, I encourage you to take a moment to recall the sacrifice given on our behalf. It is crucial that we never let time and indifference cause the memory of our fallen soldiers to fade.

We can find guidance from former Union General John Logan, who just a few years after the end of the Civil War called for flowers to be placed on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers at Arlington National Cemetery.

In his proclamation, he wrote that "we should guard their graves with sacred vigilance. ... Let pleasant paths invite the coming and going of reverent visitors and fond mourners. Let no neglect, no ravages of time, testify to the present or to the coming generations that we have forgotten as a people the cost of a free and undivided republic."

One hundred and forty five years later, those words still hold true, and they will for centuries to come. They remind us what Memorial Day really means.

From Rep. Mike Denham

Veterans memorialized on Bracken Co. Courthouse lawn

As in small towns all over the country, Bracken County shows its pride in the men and women who have given the ultimate sacrifice so that all generations may live in a free nation where we are able to practice all freedoms provided to us by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. Bracken County recognizes those sacrifices with two memorials, one on the courthouse lawn and another beside the Mains-Quinlin VFW Post 9535 in Augusta.

Memorial bricks have also been purchased and placed for not only our fallen soldiers, but for all veterans who have proudly served our country and Bracken County in all wars from WWI to Afghanistan and Iraq. Shown above proudly posing near his brick is Korean Conflict Army Veteran Linwood Pope. Mr. Pope entered the Army on March 17, 1953 and was honorably discharged on March 11, 1955 after having reached the rank of Corporal.

To purchase a memorial brick in memory or in honor of a loved one, contact Leslie Newman at 606-735-3525. The cost is $15 and presently there are 6 or 8 bricks being processed and awaiting placement on the courthouse lawn.

"Musical Tribute to our Veterans" this Saturday evening in Brooksville

Woodmen of the World Insurance in Brooksville presented Bracken County with a new American Flag and Kentucky State Flag that will proudly be flown over the courthouse lawn beginning Memorial Day weekend. The flags were presented by newly elected Woodmen of the World Kentucky Jurisdictional President, Wilma Jean Smith. She serves as treasurer for Woodmen of the World Lodge 871 and had previously served as Kentucky Jurisdictional Secretary for 14 years. She is the widow of Donald Paul Smith, mother of Jeanna Dawn (Michael) Jefferson, Wade (Danielle) Smith, Haley (Joshua) Clark, and Karlie (Caleb Sudlow, fiance) Smith, and grandmother of six.

In honor of Memorial Day, the Bracken County Alumni/Community Band is hosting its 5th annual "Musical Tribute to Our Veterans" at 6 p.m. this Saturday evening, May 25th. The program will be held on the courthouse lawn with reserved seating for Veterans. A reception will follow the program with refreshments compliments of Hometown Traditions Community Club. Bring a lawn chair and come out in support of those service men and women who gave so much for our freedom. Community members are asked to fly their flag in support of our Veterans and our active troops.

Among the charter members of the church were Anderson Field, Caleb Tarleton, H. A. Lee and Judge Adamson.

The present congregation numbers about 100. The present pastor is Rev. P. T. Smith.

Brooksville Baptist Church - The Brooksville Baptist Church was organized May 24, 1859. Services were held in the Court House prior to the building of the church.

Among the early members are found the names of James Lee, Frances Lee, Joel Hamilton, Elizabeth Corlis, Charlotte Daum, Kate Barker, Alex B. Morford and Amelia Beckett.

The organization of the Powersville Baptist Church so weakened the Brooksville Baptist Church, and the building itself was so in need of repair that no services were held for five years. During this period the church building was offered for sale, but was not sold. In 1890 much of the church equipment, including benches, altar etc., were given to the new church at Morehead, Ky.

By the combined efforts of Y. Alexander and Rev. John Holmes the church was refurnished in 1899. In 1900 Rev. Holmes held a meeting during which the membership was increased.

The present membership numbers about 97. The present pastor is Rev. Robert Alston.

Augusta Presbyterian Church - The first meeting of the Presbyterians in Augusta occurred June 6, 1812. The first meeting place was the Augusta Court House with Rev. Robert Wilson as minister.

There are not records to be found of the financing or erection of the church, but from the best information available, it is thought that the first building was erected in the year 1818.

Among the first deacons were William Buckner, James Lee and John McCormack.

The records show that the discipline was very strict. The members were cited for dancing, becoming intoxicated, engaging in horse racing and playing cards.

Differences arose in the Presbyterian Church at large and this aroused individual opinion and dissensions in the congregation of this church causing it to become divided into two separate congregations in 1868. The two congregations continued to worship in the same church edifice for eleven years with different pastors preaching on alternate Sabbaths.

The Human Condition

The Bible provides us with many good examples of humanity. Adam, Moses, and Jesus are archetypes of humanity. But, it is also true that being human is radically different now than it was in Biblical times. Culture and technology have changed us to such an extent that being human in the modern world is fundamentally different than it was in the ancient world, or even a few hundred years ago. Our species may not have changed much in terms of biology, but in terms of psychology and culture, the differences are vast. This goes beyond such superficial questions as whether Jesus would have a Twitter account or a Facebook page were he alive today. Part of what defines us as human is that we are cultural beings. That is, we grow up within a culture and that particular culture is grafted onto us. This is one of the reasons why the humanities are important as an area of study. They help us to understand what it is to be human. Works of fiction are sometimes denigrated by those with a practical bent, but good fiction is often an exploration of what it is like to be a human being. Humanity is constantly reinventing itself, all the while questioning the implications of that reinvention. One reason to study the Bible is because it gives a number of very deep answers to the question of what it means to be human.

GREETINGS FROM ST. JAMES

by Caroline Jefferson

On Sunday we celebrated the feast of Pentecost, also known as the birthday of the Church. Ten days after Jesus ascended into heaven, the Holy Spirit descended upon the apostles and Mary and came to rest over them as tongues of fire. Msgr. Dominic reminded us that that same spirit is available to us today, and we should use the gifts of the Holy Spirit of wisdom, understanding, reverence, knowledge, courage, awe and wonder in God's presence and right judgment every day to bring peace and love into this world. He emphasized that the past is gone, God forgives us and we should forgive those who have wronged us and the power of the Holy Spirit will help us to accomplish forgiveness!

This Sunday we will honor our graduates and we congratulate all students as they complete each step of their education. In our family granddaughter Abigail Zoeller has completed her first eight years and granddaughter Alyssa Reule will be a high school graduate on June 1. May God bless all graduates everywhere and may the Holy Spirit guide and protect them as they continue on their life's path that will bring them ever closer to the Creator!

PRESBYTERIAN POTPOURRI

by Les Grooms, pastor Augusta Presbyterian

We had fifty eight in attendance Sunday morning. This was Pentecost Sunday and many were dressed in red. We celebrate the birthday of the church on Pentecost. The symbol the Presbyterian Church has flames as part of its symbol.

This was also graduation Sunday and we recognized two seniors. A third senior who was not present will be recognized at a later date.

We were pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Homer Burton as guests during the Sunday School hour. They stayed for church and Homer entertained us with three songs during worship hour.

Phil White shared with us an original poem during the worship hour. Phil has a remarkable talent and we appreciate him for sharing with us.

This past week I fell and my hip is very sore. We moved the pulpit to the floor so I didn't have to climb steps. Things will be back to the way they were in the past shortly. Some liked the pulpit on floor level and some did not.

Mary Murray was the worship leader, Susie Hargett led the singing, Jill White did the power point, and Miranda Claypool and Lynn Darnell had children's church.

April Gray will be filling in for me next week as we will be attending three nights with the Gaithers. Each night there will a concert and each morning there will be a church service.

We started a new series in our adult Sunday School class. It is based on fear and we are using resources written by Max Lucado.

Trash Talk

by: Mr. Recycle Bin & Ms. Pick-Up Litterbug

Howdy Folks! Before we forget to tell you – the Recycling Center will be closed on Monday, May 27 in observance of Memorial Day. We are not sure of the weather conditions of Monday, but we hope that those of you who have plans to visit the graves of loved ones will get the opportunity to do so. Three years after the end of the Civil War on May 30, 1868, the graves of both Union and Confederate soldiers were decorated with flowers at Arlington National Cemetery giving birth to Decoration Day. After World War I, the last Monday in May became the annual day to honor the memory of those who had died during all wars in which the United States was involved and gradually folks began calling this day Memorial Day. In 1967 President Lyndon Johnson signed the legislation officially renaming the holiday as Memorial Day as it had evolved to include decorating the graves of all loved ones to honor their memory. Thankfully, Bracken County residents are very respectful of the families of the deceased and do not steal floral arrangements left behind, but some cemeteries must limit the time the ground decorations are left on the graves, so please be aware of those policies when placing flowers. Many folks have a holiday on Monday and, if possible, use this day to give your children a lesson in their ancestry by taking them to visit the graves of family members. May God continue to send us brave men and women to defend the freedoms that allow us to enjoy holidays such as Memorial Day!

Folks use the three day weekend for a myriad of activities, and spring cleaning may be on that list. If so, we still have roll-offs located at Milford on Highway 539 South (also known as the Santa Fe Road) approximately ½ mile down the road on the left, at the Figgins store in Berlin and in Brooksville on the Old 19 hill below Snappy Pizza on the right side of the road. We cannot stress enough that tires are not acceptable in these dumpsters! Not only do we have to pay for the weight of the tires, but then the disposal cost of each individual tire, not to mention that the tires are taking up container space that should be available for trash. Bracken County is tentatively scheduled for a tire amnesty this fall, so please do not dispose of your tires in the roll offs!

Last Friday's recycling trailer at Milford again contained old carpet and padding, along with other castoffs consistent with someone remodeling a home. If anyone sees these types of items being put into the recycling trailers anywhere, please let us know. We also had the same types of materials in last week's recycling trailer that is rotated from the August Depot lot, to Foster and then to Gertrude before it is emptied on Friday morning. Recycling Center personnel are none too proud of Bracken County when these types of items are dumped unto their floor! Please folks – follow the rules, they are not made to be broken but observed because they are put into place for a specific reason! Trash belongs in a landfill not a recycling trailer and even though most items CAN be recycled somewhere, Mason County is NOT one of them! As you remember your deceased loved ones this weekend, honor those who are living today and those who will come after you by RECYCLING, REUSING and REDUCING to keep God's earth clean, green and beautiful! Be seein' you – Bin & Bug.

Letters To The Editor

What I learned from picking up trash is, people that don't care about the community just want to throw trash around. People that actually care about the community will go and pick up the mess that other people left behind. It's surprising that when you actually go pick it up there's more than you will ever imagined there would be. It makes me angry that people want to go litter up our beautiful country.

BCMS Serve & Learn students assist at Senior Citizens building

The Bracken County Middle School Serve & Learn students under the guidance of Ms. Trisha Dice have been part of an intergenerational program assisting at the Licking Valley CAP Senior Citizens building, serving lunch and assisting with various duties. The connection between these two generations has grown and developed into a wonderful relationship. Many friendships have been formed and will last a lifetime.

On May 16th, the Center honored these kids by reversing roles and serving the students a meal and assisting them just like they had done all year. The students were delighted and enjoyed this honor. Each student was presented a token of appreciation and a homemade treat. After the meal the students enjoyed ice cream from Ms. Dice. B.C.M.S. is proud to be part of such a special program.

Letters To The Editor

This is what I learned from picking up trash. I learned that it's not good to harm the environment. We need to take more care of the environment, so people won't have to pick up trash. People take advantage of the world. They think it's okay to throw trash on the roads, when actually it harms the world. We should always pick up our trash and don't litter.

NEW REASON TO EXAMINE YOUNG EYES

Amblyopia popularly referred to as "lazy eye", is the most common cause of vision problems among children. This condition usually develops before the age of six and results from one eye that does not develop good vision while the other eye does. As a consequence, vision becomes blurred and depth perception may be lost. Thus, amblyopia must be detected and treated as early as possible, preferably in infancy or early childhood. Thus, a new study takes on a good deal of importance as it recommends vision screening before age three to detect risk factors for amblyopia. Performing the screening exam at this early age was found to be as accurate as screening between the ages of three and six years.

Primary eye care ranges from an annual eye exam for Amblyopia to diabetic and glaucoma screening as well as diagnosing and treatment for various other eye diseases.

At KENTUCKY EYE INSTITUTE we analyze patient symptoms, perform a regular eye exam and may test for glare disability and contrast sensitivity to make a diagnosis. The final decision to proceed with any treatment lies with you, the patient. We're located at 1937 Old Main St., Suite 1, Maysville where we truly care about your eyes. Please call us at 606-759-7883 or 800-658-7282 to schedule an appointment. We specialize in "EYE CARE FOR ALL AGES".

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

We, the members of the Augusta High School Class of 2016, recently had the opportunity to participate in the Bracken County Litter Patrol Spring Road Clean Up. It was a beautiful spring day to walk along Route 8 and enjoy the scenic view of the river while picking up a little trash along the way. We were soon dismayed to see just how much litter covered the sides of the road. With the help of class members and volunteers, we filled 18 bags with trash from the highway. Not so surprisingly, fast food containers, pop bottles, beer bottles, and aluminum cans were the majority of the items we picked up. The most depressing thing we saw were the six mattresses tossed on the side of the road just outside of Augusta. Why would anyone just dump mattresses like that? There are no excuses for littering our scenic roadways. With education, communication, and a little common sense, we can help bring a stop to the horrible habit of littering and help ensure a healthy and happy habitat for our own children someday.

Sincerely, Augusta High School Class of 2016

At the May 13th Bracken County school board meeting, the 7th & 8th Grade Honor Choir members were recognized for their achievements this year and presented the Board with a performance of 3 songs. It was a wonderful performance and the board was very proud of their hard work in addition to the time and effort put in by their music teacher, Mrs. Hicks.

Considering having surgery?
According to Harrison Memorial Hospital's Chief of Surgery, Dr. Karl Schulstad, here are important questions to ask.

▶ What is the reason that my surgical procedure is necessary at this time?

▶ What are my options if this surgical procedure is not done?

▶ What are the risks/ complications specific to this type of surgical procedure?

▶ What are the surgical infection rates for my surgeon and the hospital where I'll be?

▶ What kind of anesthesia is required?

▶ Have I researched my surgeon's years of experience? Do I know the outcomes of the surgeries he or she has performed at that hospital?

▶ What are the benefits of having surgery at a facility closer to home?

▶ Is the nursing staff accustomed to caring for patients who have had my surgical procedure?

▶ What can I expect during the recovery process?

▶ Is this procedure covered by my insurance plan?

"Patients often don't ask the critical questions BEFORE surgery. I encourage patients to ask as many questions and discuss as many concerns as they have beforehand. This ensures a more positive surgical outcome and aids in a successful recovery," says Schulstad. "A good surgeon makes sure the patient is a well-informed patient."

If you're considering surgery, talk to Dr. Schulstad. Call 859.234.0390 for more information and a consultation.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

As the official sponsor of birthdays, the American Cancer Society knows how important every birthday can be. That means the American Cancer Society here in Bracken County wants to see more and more people surviving cancer and celebrating more and more birthdays. That's actually a birthday wish.

On May 22, ACS celebrated its 100th birthday of saving lives. In those 100 years, they have led the way to transform cancer from deadly to treatable and from treatable to preventable. So now, two out of three people diagnosed with cancer in the U.S. are surviving (for at least five years). They have contributed to a 20 percent decline in cancer death rates in the U.S. since the early 1990s, meaning nearly 1.2 million lives were saved during that time.

The American Cancer Society has played a role in nearly every cancer research breakthrough in recent history; helped lead a 50 percent drop in smoking since the 1960s, which has contributed to an overall drop in lung cancer death rates; and last year alone assisted nearly 1 million people who called for help, providing free services like a place to stay while traveling for treatment, rides to treatment, emotional support, and more.

One-hundred years ago, the word "cancer" was not spoken, and we lost almost every patient to the disease. But we know that cancer thrives on silence and complacency. Progress comes when we speak out, when we make noise. Our 100th birthday is not a time to rest; it's a time to get loud and make this cancer's last century.

Progress comes when we speak out – when we proclaim victories and take action. So we want to be loud. We need to make some noise and the American Cancer Society needs you to help do that with us and for us. Silence won't finish the fight. Only action will.

Sincerely,
Courtnie McKinney

Letters To The Editor

My family and I recently picked up trash on Perkins Ridge Road to help pay for my trip to New York. The county gets grant money to give out to pick up trash that people throw out along our county roads. I couldn't believe the trash that was along our roads. We picked up pop cans and bottles, beer cans and bottles, chip bags, fast food bags and other things.

People need to wake up and stop littering in our county. I despise the fact that so many people litter here in Bracken County. When you litter it ends up in the water you drink. Would you like it if someone threw trash in your yard or on your property? If not then what makes you think it's ok to throw it out the window? After we picked the trash up, two days later I started seeing more trash along the road on our way home. It makes me think we just wasted our time. Please have some pride in our county, wake up and stop trashing Bracken County.

Students say "Peace-Out" to the School Year!

By: Kristina Lewis

Augusta students had a chance to say goodbye to testing and to the school year on Friday, May 10th at an FCCLA sponsored school dance. Students in grades K-12 were invited to celebrate a successful testing week and school year by dancing to the classics. Each student who attended received a themed gift such as a Rubik's cube, temporary tattoo, or a pair of cool shades to take home with them. These kids had a great time dressing up in their classic duds from the 50's to the 90's and dancing through the night to the oldies music.

The Elementary dance was from 3 until 5 p.m. and included all elementary students from K-6th grade. There were several unique costumes for the costume contest including poodle skirts, tie-dye shirts, and greaser hair-dos. The winners of the costume contest were Brynn Dufrene, Jacob Hensley, Iva Jansen.

The Middle/High School dance was from 7 until 10 p.m. and included 7-12th grade students. Costumes for this dance included 80's wear and hippie gear. The winners of the middle/high school costume contest were Lacy Schumacher, Yazzie Gibbs, & Kelsey Cracraft with an honorable mention to Michaela Cracraft.

Our FCCLA members appreciate everyone who attended the dance and everyone who helped organize our efforts. The dance was a successful fundraiser and we hope to be able to plan more fun themed dances in the future! We would also like to wish everyone a happy and safe summer!

Carpenter Bees/ Wood Bees

By: Lee Townsend, Entomologist
Submitted by: David Appelman, CEA for ANR

There have been lots of complaints about carpenter bees this spring. These beneficial pollinators are intimidating. Also, they can cause considerable structural damage over time. Carpenter bees spend the winter as adults in their gallery homes. Now, they are starting new tunnels or expanding old ones in order to raise a brood of about 6 larvae during the summer. Accumulations of sawdust may be the first sign that their work has begun.

A carpenter bee uses its strong mandibles to chew a 1/2-inch diameter entry hole into wood, then turns to follow the grain. The tunnel is lengthened at the rate of about 1 inch per week. Ultimately, it can be 6 to 10 inches long and can contain 6 or 7 individual larval cells. Each is provisioned with a ball of nectar and pollen as food for the grub-like larva. Over the years, galleries may become several feet long.

Carpenter bees prefer weathered softwood but will chew into stained, treated or painted wood. Eaves, window trim, facia boards, siding, wooden shakes, decks and outdoor furniture are satisfactory choices, too. Pressure treated, stained, or painted wood is not completely safe from attack.

Carpenter bees are solitary insects, each living in individual tunnels. However, large numbers can build where there is an abundance of suitable nesting material.

Carpenter bee control is not easy so prevention is the best long term strategy. Use of hardwoods when practical or covering softwoods with flashing or screen will prevent injury to areas that are chronically attacked. Closing barn and shed doors while the bees are establishing new galleries should help to reduce infestations. General maintenance helps because carpenter bees exploit rough areas on wood surfaces to begin a nest. Filling cracks and crevices and painting or varnishing exposed wood will make it less attractive.

Police to be out in force through Memorial Day wkd.

'Click It or Ticket' enforcement mobilization aimed at increasing seat belt use day and night

Motorists who refuse to wear their seat belts – beware. The 2013 national "Click It or Ticket" Memorial Day seat belt enforcement mobilization kicks off May 20 to help save lives by cracking down on those who don't buckle up.

Despite a wealth of data showing that seat belts save lives – and also despite implementation of a primary seat belt law – Kentucky's 83 percent seat belt usage rate lags behind the national rate of 86 percent. Therefore, the Kentucky Office of Highway Safety (KOHS) is supporting state and local law enforcement across the country in their efforts to strongly enforce seat belt laws around the clock.

"Kentucky undoubtedly experiences far too many fatalities that could have been avoided with the simple use of a seat belt," said Transportation Cabinet Secretary Mike Hancock. "Clearly this is an indication that people are not taking the law seriously or they are just not aware of the huge risk taken by not buckling up."

Kentucky's roadway fatalities increased last year, going from 721 deaths in 2011 to 746 in 2012. More than half of those killed in motor vehicles were not restrained.

"Too many motorists don't realize the importance of wearing a seat belt, and are severely injured or killed because of it," said KOHS Director Bill Bell. "That's why officers are prepared to ticket anyone not buckled up. No warnings and no excuses."

The KOHS awarded more than $96,800 in federal funds to 18 state and local police agencies across the Commonwealth to help bolster seat belt enforcement during the campaign. The funding is provided through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA).

Although enforcement officers will be active during the campaign, Bell emphasized, "The Click It or Ticket campaign is not about writ ing tickets. It's about awareness and saving lives."

According to NHTSA, seat belts, when worn correctly, reduce the risk of fatal injury to front-seat occupants by 45 percent – and by 60 percent in pickup trucks, SUVs and minivans.

While this year's Click It or Ticket enforcement mobilization runs from May 20 through June 2, motorists should know that officers are out enforcing seat belt laws year-round.

"Motorists should buckle up every time they go out, both day and night," said Bell.

For more on the national Click It or Ticket mobilization, visit nhtsa.gov/ciot.

Bracken approved for Shared-Use Equipment Program

$9,510 in KY Agricultural Development Funds Awarded

The Kentucky Agricultural Development Board, chaired by Gov. Steve Beshear, approved $9,510 at its monthly meeting in support of a Shared-Use Equipment Program in Bracken County. The Bracken County Agriculture Advancement Council Inc. submitted a proposal to the Bracken County Agricultural Development Council and the Kentucky Agricultural Development Board.

The Shared-Use Equipment Program was established with the purpose of benefitting a high number of producers who cannot justify ownership expenses associated with certain equipment by helping them access technology necessary to improve their operations in an economical manner. The ag advancement council will be purchasing a lime spreader with this award to lease to county farmers. This lime spreader will be able to service sloping fields that trucks cannot.

For more information about the guidelines and equipment rental, contact David Appelman, extension agent for ag and natural resources, at 606-735-2141 or dappelma@uky.edu

Hay Harvest Listing

By David Appelman, CEA for ANR

The Bracken County Extension Service has received a number of calls looking for farmers willing to cut hay on the shares. With a very short first cutting of hay, this could be an excellent opportunity to help fill the inventory needed for your herd. After the drought of last summer, you don't want to risk not having enough hay for a dry summer or winter feeding needs. The Bracken County Extension Service will help to coordinate farms that have hay to harvest with those interested in harvesting on the share. Just call in with your information that includes; your location, type of hay, acreage, and contact number. If you are willing to harvest on the shares, please leave your location, and contact information. You can also submit that to my e-mail at dappelma@uky.edu.

Sports in Kentucky
by Bob Watkins

Calipari rails at NCAA, players be made to (snicker) 'stay two years' or else

University of Kentucky athletics was number one! three times last week.

1. Mark Stoops's football team will play the nation's most difficult schedule this year. An internet site says five SEC teams will play top 10 toughest competition – Florida sixth, LSU fifth, Tennessee fourth, Arkansas second and Kentucky first.

2. Academics. Kentucky topped the SEC honor roll for the winter semester, according to a UK news release. The league's sports honor roll included 49 UK student-athletes. Congratulations to 25 swimmers, and eight each from gymnastics and rifle teams.

Men's basketball? Twany Beckham, Brian Long, Sam Malone, Jarrod Polson and Kyle Wiltjer.

Footnote: Statistics in this release were provided by the same source that issued (inflated) attendance figures at UK football games last season.

3. Basketball. Kentucky will open the season ranked No. 1 and the Wildcats are the 4-1 favorite to win the national championship, says Las Vegas Superbook.

Kansas is 10-1, Duke, Michigan State, Florida, Arizona and defending champion Louisville are 12-1, Ohio State and North Carolina at 15-1.

John Calipari's reaction? Call a press conference to talk about his favorite subject, himself. Bad idea.

"I don't mind a little pressure," the 7-Million Dollar ball coach said. "I've had it my whole career. I've had the gun to my head for 20-something years. And you know what? I'm at my best when the gun is to my head."

Peculiar choice of metaphors since gun is such a hot button word these days. Hard to get a visual of pressure on a 7-million dollar ball coach with gun to his head.

Maybe Calipari had a life-threat flashback to February 14, 1994. Then-Temple coach John Cheney charged after UMass coach Cal at a post game presser, shouting "I'll kick your a--! I'll kill you!" Cheney was dragged away.

But Calipari's press conference in Lexington last week was only a warm-up. A day later, apparently smarting because of his one-and-done legacy, he was on radio in Louisville threatening the NCAA and proclaiming himself "the only guy out there saying, 'We've gotta change this somehow. We've gotta encourage these kids to stay two years.' But the NCAA's gotta do some stuff. And if they don't do it, we need to separate from them. I'm not afraid to say it."

Excuse me, but Calipari selling "... encourage these kids to stay two years," is like waiting for Rand Paul to endorse Hillary Clinton for 2016.

Calipari threatens: "if they don't do it, we need to separate from them."?

Let's see if we have this straight.

√ Kentucky's ball coach: Pressure? Gun to his head? No problem.

√ A day later, demands the NCAA do something to force college freshmen to stay in school and if they don't it's the NCAA's 's fault.

√ And "if they don't do it we need to separate from them."

What's at the root of this rant?

Probably this:

"Look, they (NCAA) have embarrassed me," Cal told the radio audience. "I've done nothing, so they're not going to come and show retribution to me and do stuff. I don't really care."

Elephant in the Room? Cal is still sore that UMass and Memphis were made to forfeit wins, take down Final Four banners because of misdeeds on his watch.

He knew nothing about Marcus Camby jewelry and what he was driving at UMass (Camby later confessed). Cal had no idea where Derrick Rose took his second or third college entrance exam to qualify for one-and-done at Memphis.

As ex-Commissioner of the internal Revenue Service Steven Miller is finding out, he who was in charge is responsible, and ignorance is no defense.

So, Calipari wants to "separate" from the NCAA and envisions super-conferences that would regulate themselves (keep the mega-millions), re-slice the pie minus NCAA cut and, Cal says, "create incentives for college players.

An unabashed, unapologetic NBA developmental league is Calipari's goal, operating out of university facilities, using campus rah-rah as fan base, wave logos, embrace traditions, all done without academic blah-blah-blah. It's the money, stupid!

Considering how busy Calipari's mouth was last week, one wonders if he is indeed feeling pressure and not handling it well.

Still, Kentucky's ball coach must be credited for masking a large ego kinda, sorta with noisy rhetoric, audacity and blame game rant, if not the good sense to – never call a press conference to talk about putting a gun to your head and rambling about your favorite subject. You.

What next? As rascal Jerry Tarkanian discovered once upon a time, NCAA administrators normally have long memories and don't take kindly to being embarrassed by ball coaches.

And so it goes.

to sell the hereinafter described tract of real estate and any improvements thereon. This sale is to satisfy a Judgment and Order of Sale in favor of BANK OF AMERICA, N.A. against the Defendant herein in the total amount of $155,086.78, plus interest at the accrued rate of 8.52% per annum from the date of Judgment until paid, together with amounts for late fees and assessments, advancements for the protection of the property, taxes and insurance, escrow advances, reasonable attorney fees of $1,350.00, insurance premiums and court costs incurred herein.

The real estate to be sold is described as follows:

Address: 2511 Belmont Road, Brooksville, Kentucky 41004

A certain tract or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in Bracken County, Kentucky, near Indian Creek Road, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Being approximately one acre of land on which a barn now sits and being the same referred to in deed of Lovell Jacobs, et. ux., to Mildred Tengler and Phillip L. Waters, said deed dated the 25th day of October, 1973, and being of record in Deed Book 92, Page 56 of the Bracken County, Kentucky records.

SOURCE OF TITLE: Being the same property conveyed to James D. Moore, a married man, by deed dated March 24, 2003 of record in Deed Book 169, Page 27, in the Office of the Bracken County Clerk.

The property shall be sold to the highest and best bidder(s) and said purchaser shall be required to pay cash or the sum of ten percent (10%) of the bid price in cash deposit with the balance of the purchase price to be due and payable in cash or certified funds, within thirty (30) days from the date of sale. The purchaser shall be required to execute a bond, with good and sufficient surety, bearing interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date which is thirty (30) days following the date of sale, until paid, and payable to the Master Commissioner.

The purchaser shall have the privilege of paying all or any part of the purchase price or paying said bond before maturity by paying the balance of the principal together with all accrued interest thereon. If the total purchase price is not paid in cash, the required deposit shall be applied to any expenses incurred by a default of the purchaser. Provided, however, in the event a party of this action is the successful bidder at the sale of the property by the Master Commissioner, then the said party, upon payment of the court costs and sale expenses and any liens or judgments that have been given priority herein over the lien and judgment of said successful bidder/party, shall have its bid credited against its judgment herein.

If the purchaser(s) fails to comply with the terms of the sale then, in such event, the Master Commissioner shall immediately resell the property upon the same terms and conditions as set forth herein, excepting only any necessary changes in the time and date of sale. Possession of the property herein sold shall be given to the purchaser after payment in full of the purchase price and confirmation of the sale by the Bracken Circuit Court. Pursuant to the Judgment herein, the purchaser shall be required to assume and pay all ad valorem property taxes assessed against the property for 2012 and all subsequent years thereafter. The title interest of the parties to the lawsuit will be conveyed without warranty by the Master Commissioner to the purchaser and the purchaser shall receive a deed to property upon payment of the purchase price in full (and costs of sale, if applicable) and after confirmation of the sale by Bracken Circuit Court, subject to any equity of redemption if the property does not sell for two-thirds of its appraised value.

Fallen Bracken County officers remembered

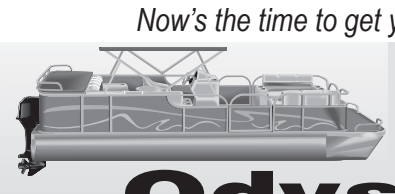

May is Law Enforcement Memorial Month. Unlike other areas, Bracken County has been very lucky that only four officers have been killed in the county in the line of duty.

The first killed was Bracken County Deputy Constable John Holton in 1845. He was the first documented law enforcement officer killed in the line of duty in the state of Kentucky. His name is on the Kentucky Law Enforcement Memorial in Richmond KY and on the National Law Enforcement Officer's Memorial in Washington, D.C. His grave in the Mt. Zion Cemetery is marked by a bronze plaque furnished and erected in 2005 by former Augusta Chief of Police Greg L. Cummins and S.H.A.R.E.

The second officer killed was Augusta Town Marshall Richard D. Lane in 1882. Brooksville Chief of Police Nimrod Showalter was killed in 1915, while the fourth and final officer to be killed in Bracken County was Augusta patrolman, Officer Charles W. Campbell in 1938. Information on each of the officers and their deaths were previously featured in May 2005 issues of The Bracken County News.
